nestle brook issues resolved, reward in the form of a rustic iron key was collected from Bartholomu meru 4th.

the remainder of the 3 eyed gang where put to use recovering and rebuilding nestle brook, the group found out mr e is unable to leave his tavern and chose not to push the matter instead taking a small child to the gang. he wasn't much use.

the group found a travel merchant headed for the city the next day and paid a fair wage for fair travel , in this 8 day adventure they met a small boy reading up on military life and an older less appealing man.

the group shared backstory's and found common group taking the time to know each other more personally after their adventure.

the boy and the older man got into a row over the usefulness of the military and how much respect they should hold , the old man revealed himself to be a former soldier in the rebellion against the House Elendire fighting for the current rulers the Windmere family.

Vidal despite being a former military had little to say in the mans defense.

upon arriving in the south gate of the city of windmere the group where greeted to a sight of a high rise prosperous city enchanted with sea air and bustling markets.

pulling over at the base of this hill the group decide to turn darrayn invisible and steal the mans stuff before he can leave coming out with his journal , a key, and basic personal belongings.

Making their way to the house they were met by a gothic hollowed house , boarded windows and cracked stairs, a old notice board sits outside with the latest bounty's. upon further inspection this used to be a sort of tavern for the ally it resides in. The group was quick to disperse finding rooms to settle in, exploring renovation options and finding a mostly empty library space with took to the appeal of ga-al the goliath.

after sleeping the group decides what to do next with their new lives.
